

CONGRESSIONAL CONTACTS

Senator Hayden --

DCI should call the Senator and express appreciation for his statement on the Mansfield Resolution.

At a later date, after Matt Baird's return, DCI might want to invite him down for lunch.

Senator Clinton Anderson --

Chairman, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy.

Good friend and admirer of DCI.

Has been sympathetic on executive pay problem.

Senators Byrd and Robertson --

DCI should call and notify them of his decision on the building site before he proceeds.

Seek their advice on notification of Governor Stanley

Senator Stennis -- ~~STATINTL~~

White and   to visit him next week and brief him on building

Senator Alexander Smith --

Has entered a resolution for a Joint Committee.

Should the Director visit him or invite him to lunch?

Senator Knowland --

DCI should invite him down or offer to see him and give him a private briefing on Agency activities, etc.

Senator Kefauver --

* Has a standing invitation to come here for debriefing on his trip to Russia and Satellite countries.

Senator Mansfield.

Senator Fulbright --

Senator Symington --

Senator Carlson --
Chairman Post Office & Civil Service

Senator Price Daniel --
Co-sponsor of Mansfield Resolution, but apparently not a firm supporter.
Perhaps Gen. Cabell can do something with him.

Senator Wiley --

Francis Walter --

Carl Vinson and Dewey Short --
DCI should visit them and bring them up to date on the building.
It would also be a good opportunity to discuss Joint Committee.

John McCormack --

Cannon and Taber --
Director should visit them, together if possible, and discuss a number of matters, including the Joint Committee Resolution.
If Cannon doesn't call first, DCI should call him in a few days and get his ideas on coverage of the next hearing, and whether Rayburn and Mart in should be invited to attend.

George Mahon --

Cong. Wigglesworth

John Heselton --

Had expressed an interest in coming down to talk about Joint Committee Resolution, but is evidently not particularly anxious to do so now. Does DCI want to call him?
